SEVEN MILE SPLENDOR AT THE RITZ-CARLTON

As the Ritz-Carlton, Grand Cayman enters its seventh year as the island's premier luxury resort, it attempts the seemingly impossible: enhancing the quintessential Seven Mile Beach experience. The resort has introduced a series of luxurious cabanas and daybeds. Each includes personalised service from the moment guests arrive until the sun slips below the horizon. ritzcarlton.com/grandcayman

AN UNEXPECTED TERRACE NEAR CHAMPS-ELYSEES

Romain Marzet, chef at the M64 restaurant of the InterContinental Paris Marceau, is proud to present his new spring/summer 2012 menu. With a touch of Japanese inspiration to enhance his original French food, Marzet's training alongside Philippe Legendre, of the three-starred George V, shines through. m64-restaurant.com
